Vacation Church Classes Slated

To provide more opportunities for spiritual nurture, First Lutheran Church of Torrance is again planning a vacation church school. The dates are Aug. 6 to 17. Sessions will be held every morning, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to noon, for all children from age four through the ninth grade.

The theme of the study is worthwhile and interesting. Students will study the Apostles' Creed and how it applies to everyday life. Workbook activities and activity projects appropriate to various ages will be offered.

Parents are included too. Most of the handwork is designed for use at home. A home book, "We Believe... at home," which will be delivered to parents by the teacher, will suggest ways of making use of it.

Expenses for the school are met by an enrollment fee of $1.50. An offering for a mission project will be received on Friday of both weeks. A closing program, to which parents will be invited, will be held Aug. 19.

Children may be enrolled by calling the church office, FA 8-5884, Tuesday through Friday, 9 a.m. through 3 p.m., or by inquiring at the church office during the same hours.
